What insurance adjusters need to know about handling Texas insurance claims. Texas has very specific laws regarding how insurance carriers should be handling claims. Failure to follow these requirements may lead the insurance carrier into owing penalties in addition to the original value of the claim. Mark Courtois applies his 25 year insurance defense background to give adjusters what they need to know to handle Texas insurance claims correctly. Topics covered in this Guide include: the Prompt Payment of Claims Act, bad faith, unfair settlement practices, subrogation, policy limits demands, and the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act. Special worksheets are provided to assist adjusters in responding timely to the time deadlines of first party claims, the time deadlines of responding to an insurance code or deceptive trade practices demand, and a policy limits demands. No adjuster handling Texas claims should be without this Guide.

Property & Casualty Exam Practice Questions are the simplest way to prepare for the Property & Casualty Insurance Exam. Practice is an essential part of preparing for a test and improving a test taker's chance of success. The best way to practice taking a test is by going through lots of practice test questions. If someone has never taken a practice test, then they are unprepared for the types of questions and answer choices that they will encounter on the official test. There is a tremendous advantage to someone taking the test that is already familiar with the questions and answer choices. Another advantage of taking practice tests is that you can assess your performance and see if you need to study and practice more, or if you're already prepared enough to achieve success on your test day. If you do well on the practice test, then you know you're prepared. If you struggle on the practice test, then you know you may still have more work to do to get prepared. Taking lots of practice tests helps ensure that you are not surprised or disappointed on your test day. Our Property & Casualty Exam Practice Questions give you the opportunity to test your knowledge on a set of questions. You can know everything that is going to be covered on the test and it will not do you any good on test day if you have not had a chance to practice. Repetition is a key to success and using practice test questions allows you to reinforce your strengths and improve your weaknesses. Detailed answer explanations are also included for each question. It may sound obvious, but you have to know which questions you missed (and more importantly why you missed them) to be able to avoid making the same mistakes again when you take the real test. That's why our Property & Casualty Exam Practice Questions include answer keys with detailed answer explanations. These in-depth answer explanations will allow you to better understand any questions that were difficult for you or that you needed more help to understand.

Among the stories from the Saturday Evening Post you may have missed that you will find here: "Going South s for the Birds" "Hair Today--Gone Tomorrow" "There's No Time Like Snow Time" "My Duels with Tools" "Me and Other Dumb Animals" "Anyone for Peanut Soup?" "And, of Course" "Eating Jell-O with Chopsticks" Among the stories that have yet to appear in the Post, for whatever reason (too classical, comes to mind): "Munch Ado" "Cashing in on Wall Street" "What Price Sunshine" "Blue Genes" "Glue and I" "The Marriage-Go-Round" "The Meek Shall Inherit the Earth?" "--.Don't Make Me Laugh" In truth, of course, I hope they do make you laugh. Perhaps, out loud at times. But at least snickering all the way.
