The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture. In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis, bleakness, cruelty, melancholia, environmental catastrophe and collapse, Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely, and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature. Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis, Nicola Barker, Julian Barnes, Jonathan Coe, Howard Jacobson, Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith, this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction, but also that this humour, this comic licence, allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things – things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers. Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre, style, affect and politics, demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing, creating sites of rich political, stylistic, cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present.

Did you know that by adding a few simple steps to your selling process you could achieve sales you only dreamt of in the past? GoodbyeSellingProblems.com provides a 12 step system that you, as a business owner, or you, as a sales manager, can implement in less than a day and dramatically increase your results. Your sales efforts become much more productive and less stressful. It provides a framework for small businesses to structure their sales process. It strips away all the "fluff" and confusion that you encounter with most expensive sales training courses. The simple 12 step system provides a "nuts and bolts" approach to selling. It allows you to enter every sales situation with a purpose for closing the sale and gets you away from the deadly "sales visit" dilemma that most business owners and sales professionals fall into. In a just a few hours, you can literally gather the information that system introduces you to and make the most powerful sales presentation your company has ever encountered. When this system becomes part of your selling culture, it will provide you with improved sales, greater margins, and eliminate the competition. Author, Buzz Glover, after quietly reviewing and critiquing the sales people that called on him in his own businesses for over 15 years, became disillusioned with the fact that the great majority of salespeople were ill-prepared to sell their products or services. He knew that if he could introduce them to a system that he had developed and refined as a salesperson (and later as a sales manager), they could easily become much more effective at closing more sales faster! The system became a reality when he wrote this book as a companion to his system's website, www.goodbyesellingproblems.com. Through this sales system he is confident that he can change the way small businesses sell and make fundamental cultural changes in their approach to marketing their products and services.
