An inquiry into what it is about our experiences and cultures that brings out the differences and reveals the similarities in us as human beings, in the vein of Malcolm Gladwell and Daniel Kahneman. Jacob Burak is on a quest to answer the question “are we as human beings, who are separated by different cultures and experiences, similar or different?” Through the lens of behavioural studies, we see how, while our approaches differ and often conflict, we all strive for similar things: love, acceptance, power and understanding. How to Find a Black Cat in a Dark Room offers the latest scientific studies of human behaviour alongside accessible anecdotes to examine the universal human experiences of comparing ourselves to others, the need to belong, the urge to achieve and the anxiety and uncertainty of life itself. More importantly, Burak shows us how, in understanding these behavioural patterns, we learn that we are actually more alike than we are different; that our rivals often make us stronger; and that being trusting can help us live longer. With his inquisitive nature, logical thinking and engaging style, Burak examines whether it is destiny or personality that controls our lives, through intriguing subjects such as:

- What are the ten rules for happiness that are entirely under our control?
- Why do smart people make stupid mistakes?
- What distinguishes bureaucrats and entrepreneurs?
- What are the psychological differences between liberals and conservatives?
- In what circumstances is it right to

"Howard Miner was a student in a small midwestern college when the War broke out. His journey through training and tours of duty as a PBY pilot in the South Pacific are skillfully captured in his art and narratives, framing a wartime drama with a personal coming of age story. The Black Cats flew at night in seaplanes painted entirely black. Their assignments were varied, from patrols and bombing raids to rescues and missions that took them over thousands of miles of water and countless islands. This is a tale of ordinary people navigating through exceptional circumstances -- the friendships made, the cultures discovered, and the constant threat of enemy engagements. Sketches of a Black Cat is a memoir reconstructed by his son, Ron, from a small library of artwork, journal entries, and writing. Through his father's eyes and first hand accounts, we explore the behind the scenes life and idiosyncracies of the military,

Siapa yang tidak mengenal sosok Edgar Allan Poe? Karya-karyanya menginspirasi para penulis cerita misteri terkenal, seperti Agatha Christie, hingga Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Ide dan gaya penceritaan yang begitu unik, suram, dan menekankan deskripsi yang kuat, membuat pembaca seakan mengalami sendiri kisah yang dilakoni tokoh utamanya. Tumbuh dewasa sebagai anak adopsi, Poe menjalani kehidupan yang sulit. Namun, di tengah kerumitan kisah pribadinya, Poe mampu menulis begitu banyak karya yang patut diapresiasi di genre horror gothic dan detektif. Black Cat (1843) adalah salah satu cerpennya yang membuat pembaca benar-benar merasakan kengerian si tokoh utama atas kejadian aneh setelah kematian kucing peliharaannya. Sementara Peristiwa Pembunuhan di Rue Morgue (1841), disebut-sebut sebagai kisah detektif fiksi pertama di dunia-menceritakan tokoh detektif yang dengan metode tertentu menyelidiki kasus pembunuhan di ruang tertutup. Kedua cerpen tersebut beserta kisah pilihan lainnya terhimpun dalam buku ini. Cerita-cerita yang tak boleh dilewatkan,

The Edgar Allan Poe Collection (2020) compiles several iconic works of short fiction and poetry by an icon of American literature. Recognized as a foundational figure of nineteenth century fiction, Poe has inspired generations of readers and writers with his craftsmanship and taste for tragedy and terror. His brief but meteoric career shaped the trajectory of American literature forever, forming a legacy without which science fiction, horror, and detective writing would surely be shells of themselves. In “The Fall of the House of Usher,” a man receives a distressing letter from an old friend requesting his presence at his family estate. There, Roderick Usher and his twin sister Madeline are found suffering from an unknown illness, and the narrator struggles to comfort them as signs of paranormal activity lead him to believe that the house itself is a living entity. “The Masque of the Red Death” is a timely work of Gothic fiction set in the abbey of a powerful prince. As the world outside suffers from a deadly plague, the prince decides to hold a masquerade for his wealthy friends and fellow nobles, unwittingly bringing death to his own fortunate doorstep. In “The Murders in the Rue Morgue,” a French detective summons the powers of analytical reasoning to investigate the deaths of two young women. Included in this collection are some of Poe’s most iconic poems, including “A Dream Within a Dream,” “The Raven,” and “Ulalume,” all of which remain indelible classics of Romantic verse, masterpieces of mystery, beauty, and slow-burning fear. With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript, this edition of The Edgar Allan Poe Collection is a classic of American literature reimagined for modern readers.
