Gothenburg (Goteborg) is Sweden's second largest city situated on the country's west coast. The city is easily reached by air to Gothenburg Landvetter Airport which is located 20km to the south-east. There are regular Flygbussarna coaches running from just outside the airport to the city centre, which takes around half an hour. There are ticket machines inside the airport for the coach or you can buy a ticket from the driver using a credit/debit card. Once you have arrived you'll find Gothenburg to be a lively, vibrant city that is proud of its maritime history. There are a number of impressive museums, bars, restaurants and, for thrill seekers, Scandinavia's largest amusement park, Liseberg, is within easy walking distance from the city centre. Being the centre of a large university certainly aids the very exciting local craft beer scene. Gothenburg had some truly fantastic bars offering a wonderful selection of top Swedish beers. The aim of this book is to provide a handy guide for any beer focussed trip to the city. On the following pages you'll find details of our recommended Top 13 best bars to visit during your stay. We've also provided details of some of the cities breweries, the top monuments, attractions and museums that you can visit and the best place to find bottled beer in town.
